

CULTURE AROUND
EVERY CORNER.

ST. AUGUSTINE | PONTE VEDRA | FLORIDA'S HISTORIC COAST™

Experience the Gilded Age in St. Augustine

DAY 1

Breakfast – Hot Shot Bakery n' Café

Serving hot breakfast, fresh pastries, homemade paninis, and specialty coffee all day long, plus an assortment of award-winning Datil pepper products such as hot sauces and jams.

hotshotcafe.com

47 Cordova Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 824-7898

Flagler Legacy Tour

Built by Henry M. Flagler in 1888 and one of the most exclusive resorts of its day, Historic Tours of the former Hotel Ponce de Leon highlight the Spanish Renaissance architectural heritage of what is now Flagler College.

legacy.flagler.edu/pages/tours

59 St. George Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 823-3378

Lunch – The Floridian

Local, seasonal and sustainable ingredients in a comfortable and casual atmosphere. Taste southern comfort food and vibrant, creative dishes with many vegetarian options.

www.thefloridianstaug.com

72 Spanish Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 829-0655

Explore Downtown and Flagler's Churches

Henry Flagler had a hand at constructing many of the oldest churches in St. Augustine. As you explore downtown, visit the beautifully adorned Cathedral-Basilica of St. Augustine and the Memorial Presbyterian Church, where Flagler and his family were laid to rest.

Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine

38 Cathedral Place, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 824-2806

Memorial Presbyterian Church

32 Sevilla Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 829-6451

Sweet Eats and Must-Sees

The Hyppo Gourmet Ice Pops

- Gourmet, handmade all-natural ice pops in over 450 flavors.
- (904) 217-7853 / 48 Charlotte Street, St. Augustine, FL

Plaza de La Constitución

- The oldest public park in the U.S.
Weekly concerts June 1 - August 31 from 7-9pm.
- (904) 825-1000 / 1 Cathedral Street, St. Augustine, FL

Tour the St. Augustine Distillery

Visit the museum and experience a free guided tour.

Located within a beautifully restored ice plant from the turn-of-the-century, St. Augustine Distillery's mission is simple: Educate and inspire guests about local, handcrafted, award-winning rum, whiskey bourbon, gin, and vodka.

staugustinedistillery.com

112 Riberia Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 825-4962

Dinner - The Ice Plant Bar

Set in a 1927 industrial building, this eatery offers locally sourced dishes & seasonal cocktails. Shortly following the Gilded Age, the original building supplied the city with manufactured ice as a modern convenience for the wealthy.

iceplantbar.com

110 Riberia Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 829-6553

Breakfast - La Herencia Café

Dine in this small Cuban-American restaurant in the heart of historic downtown St. Augustine, serving Cuban food from family recipes and breakfast all day.

bit.ly/la-herencia

4 Aviles Street, St. Augustine, 32084
(904) 829-9487

Tour the Lightner Museum

A monument to the lavishness of the Gilded Age, the museum features three floors of artifacts from the 19th and 20th centuries, including exquisite Victorian clothing and art, stained Tiffany glass, and paintings and oddities from around the world.

lightnermuseum.org

75 King Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 824-2874

Lunch - Café Alcazar in the Lightner

Dine in the former pool of the Alcazar Hotel with Henry Flagler and the characters from the tour. Hear them boast of their accomplishments and tell stories.

Formerly Henry Flagler's Alcazar Hotel, which closed in 1932. The indoor pool, now the location of Café Alcazar, was the largest in the world in its time. At certain times, the pool was drained, and elaborate gardens were installed on the pool's floor.

thealcazarcafe.com/cafe-alcazar

25 Granada Street, St Augustine, FL
(904) 825-9948

Explore Aviles Street And King Street Art Galleries

Explore Aviles Street, now one of the area's most diverse arts districts, filled with galleries and restaurants. It was paved with bricks so that the shoes of ladies from New York would not be soiled walking through muddy streets.

Dinner Options

Costa Brava in the Casa Monica Hotel

Take a culinary journey along the Mediterranean at Costa Brava. A sumptuous meze-style menu features fresh and flavorful coastal cuisine, perfect to share with family and friends.

bit.ly/casa-monica

95 Cordova Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 827-1888

Henry Flagler purchased the hotel in 1887, including all fixtures, furnishings, silver, hardware, linen, bedding, parlor, hall, dining room, and kitchen furnishings and all other chattels.

Preserved Restaurant

Enjoy upscale, locally-sourced Southern cuisine in the historic Victorian neighborhood of Lincolnville. Architecturally, the restaurant has retained the original structure of the building, which was built between 1865 and 1885.

preservedrestaurant.com

102 Bridge Street, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 679-4940

Evening

Each weekend, enjoy free live music under the Colonial Oak at The Colonial Quarter.

colonialquarter.com/concerts

33 St. George Street, St. Augustine, FL
(888) 991-0933

MORE TO SEE

Castillo de San Marcos National Monument

Visitors to St. Augustine, such as Flagler's distinguished guests, sometimes golfed on the lawn of the Castillo. Tour the grounds of the 17th century Spanish fort, imagining its elegant use in the Gilded Age as a tourism destination for America's Elite.

www.nps.gov/casa/

1 S Castillo Drive, St. Augustine, FL
(904) 829-6506

Explore more itineraries at historiccoastculture.com/travel-itineraries

