

MORNING

Lincolville and Lunch

Backstory

Named after Abraham Lincoln, Lincolville was established shortly after the Civil War by newly freed black Americans. What began as a cluster of plantation squatter shacks known as “Africa” eventually boasted the city’s largest collection of Victorian homes. Indeed, Lincolville is a place that has lived every phase of America’s racial journey.

Experience

The Lincolville Museum

Explore the museum and its collection of exhibits on African-American history and culture in northeast Florida from the 1700s to today.

102 Martin Luther King Avenue, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 824-1191 | www.lincolvillemuseum.org

St. Paul AME Church

Explore the holy place where Martin Luther King preached in 1964.

85 Martin Luther King Avenue, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 829-3918 | www.saintpaulfamily.com/home.html

St. Augustine Black Heritage Tours Inc.

Further your learning and understanding of the African-American Journey with a FREE guided tour through 10 different historical sites. Groups depart the Tour St. Augustine office located at 4 Granada Street.

4 Granada Street, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 825-0087 | www.staugustineblackheritagetours.com

ACCORD Freedom Trail Self-Guided Audio Tour

Follow markers describing civil rights-related events and people at more than 30 sites on the ACCORD Freedom Trail. Brochures for the ACCORD Freedom Trail's self-guided tour are available at the St. Augustine Visitor Information Center in downtown St. Augustine.

79 Bridge Street, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 347-1382 | www.accordfreedomtrail.org

TRUE STORY: St. Augustine is the only place in Florida where Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was ever arrested. His and other demonstrations in the city led directly to the passage of the landmark Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Eats

Blue Hen Café

Unique café offering fresh and locally-sourced Southern cuisine for breakfast and lunch, located in St. Augustine's historic Lincolnville neighborhood.

117 Martin Luther King Avenue, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 217-3777

AFTERNOON

Fort Mose

Backstory

Fort Mose Historic State Park is a 40-acre waterfront historic site featuring picnic areas, exceptional wildlife and birding opportunities, one kayak launch boardwalk, a visitor center and a museum.

Experience

Fort Mose African-American Community of Freedom

Visit the original location of Fort Mose! Check the schedule for reenactments and events that tell this thrilling and historically significant story. Casual historians and buffs alike will enjoy the interactive museum that chronicles the first free African-American settlement in what would become the United States.

15 Fort Mose Trail, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 823-2232 | www.fortmose.org

Special Event: Flight to Freedom at Fort Mose

February

In celebration of Black History Month, walk with reenactors and learn the story of hundreds of people who fled to Spanish Florida from enslavement on British plantations in the 1700s.

EVENING

Explore the Plaza De La Constitucion and Dinner

Save time to stop back at your lodging to refresh.

Backstory

Originally built by the king of Spain in 1598, the Plaza De La Constitucion eventually became the Slave Market. In the 1960s, the first attempts to integrate food counters in St. Augustine were at a Woolworths that faced the Plaza. St. Augustine is the oldest city in the US settled by Europeans; therefore, it is almost certain that the Plaza is the oldest public park in the US that still functions as a public park.

Experience

St. Augustine Foot Soldiers Monument

Pay tribute to the people who engaged in various forms of peaceful protest in St. Augustine in the early 1960s to advance the cause of civil rights, contributing to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Eats

OC White's Seafood and Spirits

Dinner with a view, complemented by fresh Maryland Blue Crab Cakes or a Florida-style Bucket O' Steamers.

118 Avenida Menendez, St. Augustine, FL 32084
(904) 824-0808 | www.ocwhitesrestaurant.com

Honoring the Legacy: A Tribute to African-Americans in Golf

This permanent exhibition at the World Golf Hall of Fame contains rare photographs, audio, video and memorabilia to highlight the rich history of African-Americans in golf, starting with pioneers from the late 1800s through today's game.

World Golf Place, St Augustine, FL 32092
www.worldgolfhalloffame.org/

